

HISTORY OF THE GREEN TURTLE CLUB

In 1963 English Biologist and Inventor, Allan Charlesworth arrived at Green Turtle Cay in his Ranger Yacht which he designed and manufactured himself. He believed the property where the Green Turtle Club now exists was the most beautiful location he had ever seen and thus inquired to purchase it. The sale took place in 1964 and so began The Green Turtle Club. Mr. and Mrs. Charlesworth moved the entire family to Green Turtle Cay from England. Susan Charlesworth Phillips and her husband Roger joyfully operated the Club for many years and later Tracey Charlesworth Nawn and her husband Jim continued.

In 1994 Adam Lockhart Showell, Sr. discovered White Sound on a stormy November sunset aboard his childhood friend and college roommate's restored mahogany 1950 Chris Craft Sedan. Walking into the Topsy Turtle Bar, Miss Debbie poured them a drink and they clanked glasses to a safe arrival. The warm welcome the Club offered and deep history it possesses left a lasting impression on Adam. He returned in 2001 and fell in love with the Club, the island and the locals of Green Turtle Cay. Adam with his sister and partner, Ann Showell Mariner, purchased The Green Turtle Club in 2004 and began many great years entertaining family and friends. Today Adam and his three children: Adam Jr., Sarah Ann, and Hannah spend time together at the Club often. The Club's long standing tradition of being a family run business continues; Sarah Ann, having finished her MBA from Rollins College, now has joined her father in the owner's role of The Green Turtle Club.

We welcome you as family to The Club and hope you return soon and often to this incredible island.
